33 Renunciation by application

3 After section 33

Insert:

33AA Renunciation by conduct

Renunciation and cessation of citizenship

- (1) Subject to this section, a person aged 14 or older who is a national or citizen of a country other than Australia renounces their Australian citizenship if the person acts inconsistently with their allegiance to Australia by engaging in conduct specified in subsection (2).

Note 1: The Minister may, in writing, exempt the person from the effect of this section in relation to certain matters: see subsection (14).

Note 2: This section does not apply to conduct of Australian law enforcement or intelligence bodies, or to conduct in the course of certain duties to the Commonwealth: see section 35AB.

- (2) Subject to subsections (3) to (5), subsection (1) applies to the following conduct:
- (a) engaging in international terrorist activities using explosive or lethal devices;
 - (b) engaging in a terrorist act;
 - (c) providing or receiving training connected with preparation for, engagement in, or assistance in a terrorist act;
 - (d) directing the activities of a terrorist organisation;
 - (e) recruiting for a terrorist organisation;
 - (f) financing terrorism;
 - (g) financing a terrorist;
 - (h) engaging in foreign incursions and recruitment.
- (3) Subsection (1) applies to conduct specified in any of paragraphs (2)(a) to (h) only if the conduct is engaged in:
- (a) with the intention of advancing a political, religious or ideological cause; and
 - (b) with the intention of:
 - (i) coercing, or influencing by intimidation, the government of the Commonwealth or a State, Territory or foreign country, or of part of a State, Territory or foreign country; or
 - (ii) intimidating the public or a section of the public.
- (4) A person is taken to have engaged in conduct with an intention referred to in subsection (3) if, when the person engaged in the conduct, the person was:
- (a) a member of a declared terrorist organisation (see section 35AA); or
 - (b) acting on instruction of, or in cooperation with, a declared terrorist organisation.
- (5) To avoid doubt, subsection (4) does not prevent the proof or establishment, by other means, that a person engaged in conduct with an intention referred to in subsection (3).
- (6) Words and expressions used in paragraphs (2)(a) to (h) have the same meanings as in Subdivision A of Division 72, sections 101.1, 101.2, 102.2, 102.4, 103.1 and 103.2 and Division 119 of the Criminal Code, respectively. However (to avoid doubt) this does not include the fault elements that apply under the Criminal Code in relation to those provisions of the Criminal Code.

- (7) This section does not apply in relation to conduct by a person unless:
- (a) the person was not in Australia when the person engaged in the conduct; or
 - (b) the person left Australia after engaging in the conduct and, at the time that the person left Australia, the person had not been tried for any offence related to the conduct.
- (8) Subsection (1) applies to a person who is an Australian citizen regardless of how the person became an Australian citizen (including a person who became an Australian citizen upon the person's birth).
- (9) Where a person renounces their Australian citizenship under this section, the renunciation takes effect, and the Australian citizenship of the person ceases, immediately upon the person engaging in the conduct referred to in subsection (2).

Minister to give notice

- (10) If the Minister becomes aware of conduct because of which a person has, under this section, ceased to be an Australian citizen, the Minister:
- (a) must give, or make reasonable attempts to give, written notice to that effect to the person:
 - (i) as soon as practicable; or
 - (ii) if the Minister makes a determination under subsection (12)—as soon as practicable after the Minister revokes the determination (if the Minister does so); and
 - (b) may give notice to that effect to such other persons and at such time as the Minister considers appropriate.

Note: A person may seek review of the basis on which a notice under this subsection was given in the High Court of Australia under section 75 of the Constitution, or in the Federal Court of Australia under section 39B of the Judiciary Act 1903.

- (11) A notice under paragraph (10)(a) must set out:
- (a) the matters required by section 35B; and

- (b) the person's rights of review.
- (12) The Minister may determine in writing that a notice under paragraph (10)(a) should not be given to a person if the Minister is satisfied that giving the notice could prejudice the security, defence or international relations of Australia, or Australian law enforcement operations. The Minister must consider whether to revoke such a determination:
 - (a) no later than 6 months after making it; and
 - (b) at least every 6 months thereafter until 5 years have passed since the determination was made.

Minister's power to rescind notice and exempt person

- (13) Subsections (14) to (19) apply only if a person has renounced his or her citizenship under this section.
- (14) At any time after a person has renounced his or her citizenship under this section, the Minister may make a determination to:
 - (a) rescind any notice given under subsection (10) in respect of the person; and
 - (b) exempt the person from the effect of this section in relation to the matters that were the basis for the notice, or in relation to matters that would have been the basis for giving a notice in respect of the person under paragraph (10)(a), but for the operation of subsection (12).
- (15) The Minister does not have a duty to consider whether to exercise the power under subsection (14) in respect of any person, whether the Minister is requested to do so by the person who has renounced his or her citizenship under this section, or by any other person, or in any other circumstances.
- (16) To avoid doubt, in deciding whether to consider exercising the power in subsection (14), the Minister is not required to have regard to any of the matters referred to in subsection (17).
- (17) If the Minister decides to consider whether to exercise the power in subsection (14), then, in that consideration, the Minister must have regard to the following:
 - (a) the severity of the matters that were the basis for any notice given in respect of the person under subsection (10), or of matters that would have been the basis for giving a notice in

- respect of the person under paragraph (10)(a), but for the operation of subsection (12);
- (b) the degree of threat posed by the person to the Australian community;
 - (c) the age of the person;
 - (d) if the person is aged under 18—the best interests of the child as a primary consideration;
 - (e) whether the person is being or is likely to be prosecuted in relation to matters referred to in paragraph (a);
 - (f) the person’s connection to the other country of which the person is a national or citizen and the availability of the rights of citizenship of that country to the person;
 - (g) Australia’s international relations;
 - (h) any other matters of public interest.
- (18) If the Minister makes a determination under subsection (14), the Minister must cause to be laid before each House of the Parliament, within 15 sitting days of that House after the Minister makes the determination, a statement that:
- (a) sets out the determination; and
 - (b) sets out the reasons for the determination, referring in particular to the Minister’s reasons in relation to the matters set out in subsection (17).
- (19) If the Minister thinks that it would not be in the public interest to publish the name of the person or of any other person connected in any way with the matter concerned, the statement under subsection (18) must not include those names or any information that may identify those persons.

General provisions relating to Minister’s powers

- (20) The powers of the Minister under this section may only be exercised by the Minister personally.
- (21) Section 47 applies to a decision by the Minister to make, or not make, a determination under subsection (14), but does not apply to any other decision of the Minister under this section (including any decision whether to consider exercising the power in subsection (14) to make a determination).

- (22) The rules of natural justice apply to a decision by the Minister to make, or not make, a determination under subsection (14), but do not apply to any other decision, or the exercise of any other power, by the Minister under this section (including any decision whether to consider exercising the power in subsection (14) to make a determination).
- (23) An instrument exercising any of the Minister's powers under this section is not a legislative instrument.
- (24) To avoid doubt, a person's citizenship is taken never to have ceased under this section because of particular conduct if:
 - (a) in proceedings under section 75 of the Constitution, or under this Act or another Commonwealth Act, a court finds that the person did not engage in the conduct or have the requisite intention under subsection (3) of this section; or
 - (b) in proceedings under section 75 of the Constitution, or under this Act or another Commonwealth Act, a court finds that the person was not a national or citizen of a country other than Australia at the time of the conduct; or
 - (c) the Minister makes a determination under subsection (14) in relation to the conduct to exempt the person from the effect of this section; or
 - (d) a declaration under section 35AA is disallowed by either House of the Parliament, and the person's citizenship would not have ceased under this section if that declaration had not been made.

4 Section 35

Repeal the section, substitute:

- (4) For the purposes of subparagraph (1)(b)(ii) and without limitation, a person is not in the service of a declared terrorist organisation to the extent that:

 - (c) the person is providing neutral and independent humanitarian assistance.

Minister to give notice

- (5) If the Minister becomes aware of conduct because of which a person has, under this section, ceased to be an Australian citizen, the Minister:
 - (a) must give, or make reasonable attempts to give, written notice to that effect to the person:
 - (i) as soon as practicable; or
 - (ii) if the Minister makes a determination under subsection (7)—as soon as practicable after the Minister revokes the determination (if the Minister does so); and
 - (b) may give notice to that effect to such other persons and at such time as the Minister considers appropriate.

Note: A person may seek review of the basis on which a notice under this subsection was given in the High Court of Australia under section 75 of the Constitution, or in the Federal Court of Australia under section 39B of the Judiciary Act 1903.

- (6) A notice under paragraph (5)(a) must set out:

The Minister must consider whether to revoke such a determination:
 - (a) no later than 6 months after making it; and
 - (b) at least every 6 months thereafter until 5 years have passed since the determination was made.

- (10) The Minister does not have a duty to consider whether to exercise the power under subsection (9) in respect of any person, whether the Minister is requested to do so by the person who has ceased to be a citizen under this section, or by any other person, or in any other circumstances.
- (11) To avoid doubt, in deciding whether to consider exercising the power in subsection (9), the Minister is not required to have regard to any of the matters referred to in subsection (12).

- (12) If the Minister decides to consider whether to exercise the power in subsection (9), then, in that consideration, the Minister must have regard to the following:
- (a) the severity of the matters that were the basis for any notice given in respect of the person under subsection (5), or of matters that would have been the basis for giving a notice in respect of the person under paragraph (5)(a), but for the operation of subsection (7);
 - (b) the degree of threat posed by the person to the Australian community;
 - (c) the age of the person;
 - (d) if the person is aged under 18—the best interests of the child as a primary consideration;
 - (e) whether the person is being or is likely to be prosecuted in relation to matters referred to in paragraph (a);
 - (f) the person's connection to the other country of which the person is a national or citizen and the availability of the rights of citizenship of that country to the person;
 - (g) Australia's international relations;
 - (h) any other matters of public interest.
- (13) If the Minister makes a determination under subsection (9), the Minister must cause to be laid before each House of the Parliament, within 15 sitting days of that House after the Minister makes the determination, a statement that:

 - (b) sets out the reasons for the determination, referring in particular to the Minister's reasons in relation to the matters set out in subsection (12).
- (14) If the Minister thinks that it would not be in the public interest to publish the name of the person or of any other person connected in any way with the matter concerned, the statement under subsection (13) must not include those names or any information that may identify those persons.

- (17) The rules of natural justice apply to a decision by the Minister to make, or not make, a determination under subsection (9), but do not apply to any other decision, or the exercise of any other power, by the Minister under this section (including any decision whether to consider exercising the power in subsection (9) to make a determination).
- (18) An instrument exercising any of the Minister's powers under this section is not a legislative instrument.
- (19) To avoid doubt, a person's citizenship is taken never to have ceased under this section because of the person serving or fighting as set out in subsection (1) if:

 - (ii) advocates the doing of a terrorist act; and
 - (b) is opposed to Australia, or to Australia's interests, values, democratic beliefs, rights or liberties, so that if a person were to fight for or be in the service of such an organisation the person would be acting inconsistently with their allegiance to Australia.
